Financial Aid:

- The FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) application can be found at www.FAFSA.gov.
- Adelphi University FAFSA school code is 002666.
- For the 2017-2018 academic year, complete the 17/18 FAFSA using 2015 tax information.
- Beginning October 1 2017, you may file for the 2018-2019 academic year using 2016 tax information.

- Graduate students are eligible for Federal Unsubsidized Direct Loans (6.00% interest rate).
- A minimum of six (6) credits per semester is required in order to be eligible for Federal Direct Loans.
- Financial Aid does not directly cover the summer semester (if coursework is required). If you do have to take summer sessions, you are suggested to speak with the Office of Student Services in Manhattan or Student Financial Services in Garden City for information about summer financial aid.

Scholarships:

- All academic merit-based scholarships are awarded through the Office of Admissions upon acceptance to the University. If you meet the criteria for a University scholarship, an award letter will be provided to you. You may also speak with your respective academic department for scholarship information.

Dropping a course –

Any student dropping prior to the first day of classes will receive a credit for all tuition, less the mandatory non-refundable registration fee. Non-attendance in a course and/or non-payment for a course does not constitute an official drop. Students will be responsible for payment of all tuition and fees until an official withdrawal form is presented to Academic Services. Refunds are calculated according to the refund schedule printed below as of the date the drop is received.

You are strongly suggested to speak with The Office of Student Services in Manhattan or Student Financial Services in Garden City before dropping a course as it could impact your financial aid awards**
